

What are my rights when filing a claim?

SHARE THIS

- EN ESPAÑOL
- DOWNLOAD TO PDF

SPONSORED BY

As a policyholder, you have certain rights. Every state has laws protecting consumers. Your policy is a legal contract between you and your insurer. It defines your rights and obligations as well as the rights and obligations of the insurance company.

If you have any questions regarding your rights under the policy, talk to your insurance agent or company representative. You may also contact your state insurance department, state attorney general's office, or your state's consumer affairs department.

Back to top