KEY FACTS: THE INSURANCE INDUSTRY'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE OREGON ECONOMY

The insurance industry in Oregon has a significant impact on the state's economy that extends well beyond its responsibilities to collect premiums and settle claims. It employs licensed professionals, pays taxes, owns municipal bonds and serves people in their times of greatest need.

EMPLOYMENT

U.S. Department of Commerce data show the insurance industry provided 33,958 jobs in Oregon in 2015. The Oregon insurance industry accounted for about $2.4 billion in compensation in 2015.

GROSS STATE PRODUCT

The insurance industry contributed $4.0 billion to the Oregon gross state product (GSP) in 2014, accounting for 1.95 percent of the state GSP.

TAXES

Premium taxes paid by insurance companies in Oregon totaled $62.3 million in 2015.

PREMIUMS

Direct premiums written by property/casualty insurance companies in Oregon totaled $6.2 billion in 2015. In addition, premiums written by life/health insurance companies totaled $6.8 billion (including life insurance, annuities, accident and health insurance, deposit type funds and other considerations).

SURPLUS LINES

The surplus lines market, a group of highly specialized insurers, exists to provide coverage that is not available through licensed insurers in the standard insurance market. For the many thousands of businesses that rely on some level of surplus line protection to keep their doors open, surplus lines is an important segment of the market. The Oregon surplus lines market accounted for $331.0 million in gross premiums written in 2015, according to a survey by Business Insurance.

CLAIMS PAYMENTS

Insurance company claims payments help ensure the economic security of individuals and businesses and help sustain a number of related industries. In 2015 these payments in Oregon as measured by direct property/casualty incurred losses, were $3.3 billion. Life insurance claims and benefits payouts in Oregon totaled $5.5 billion in 2015, on a direct basis before reinsurance, and includes life insurance, death benefits, matured endowments, annuity benefits and other life insurance benefits. Does not include accident and health.

CATASTROPHES

The insurance industry plays a vital role in helping individuals and businesses prepare for and recover from the potentially devastating effects of a disaster such as a catastrophic hurricane or storm or wildfire. In 2016 there were 1,245 wildfires in Oregon which burned 219,509 acres. Oregon ranked tenth in the nation in 2016 for the number of acres burned by wildfires.
