To The Reader

In response to the globalization of the insurance business and the need for readily available data on world insurance, the Insurance Information Institute produces a Fact Book for international insurance statistics.

We could not have undertaken this project without help from many organizations that collect international insurance data. We are especially grateful for the generous assistance of Axco Insurance Information Services (<http://www.axcoinfo.com>), a London-based insurance information service, and Swiss Re (<http://www.swissre.com>), which publishes the international research journal, sigma. The information included, which covers some 90 countries, comes from a variety of other sources as well. We have attempted to standardize the information as much as possible.

We hope you find this Fact Book useful.

Chapter 1: World Overview

World Overview

WORLD LIFE AND NONLIFE INSURANCE IN 2011

Outside the United States, the insurance industry is divided into life and nonlife, or general insurance, rather than life/health and property/casualty. World insurance premiums rose by 6 percent from $4.3 trillion in 2010 to $4.6 trillion in 2011, according to Swiss Re's latest study of world insurance. However, when adjusted for inflation, premiums declined slightly (0.8 percent). Nonlife premiums expanded by 8.2 percent in 2011, or by 1.8 percent when adjusted for inflation, reflecting economic growth in emerging markets and rate increases in some advanced markets. By contrast global life insurance premiums rose by 4.4 percent in 2011, but fell by 2.7 percent when adjusted for inflation.

In 2011 life and nonlife insurance premiums (excluding cross-border business) accounted for 6.6 percent of world gross domestic product (GDP). Premiums accounted for 17.0 percent of GDP in Taiwan, the highest share in the Swiss Re study, followed by 13.2 percent in the Netherlands, 12.9 percent in South Africa, 11.8 percent in the United Kingdom and 11.6 percent in South Korea. Premiums represented 8.1 percent of GDP in the United States, the 13th highest share in the study.
