The reforms are intended to combat fraud associated with staged accidents and address the abuse of PIP coverage, which has led to illegal or improper medical billing practices and increased frequency of lawsuits.

Reporters with questions on PIP may contact:

- Lynne McChristian, Florida Representative for the I.I.I. at 813-480-6446, lynnem@iii.org [1]; or
- Sam Miller, Florida Insurance Council, 850-386-6668, ext. 223, smiller@flains.org [5]

The I.I.I. also has research and background papers on no-fault auto insurance [6], compulsory auto insurance and uninsured motorists [7], and facts and statistics on auto crashes [8].

In order to help consumers understand how insurance works after a car crash, the I.I.I. has also produced a variety of podcasts, including What to Do in Case of an Auto Accident [9] and Uninsured Motorists, [10]

The I.I.I. can also provide interviews and information in Spanish.
